KEYSTONE DEMOCRATS.

Result of Their Convention at Williamsport Yesterday.

B. F. MYERS FOR STATE TREASURER

Yerkes of Bucks, Moorehead of Westmoreland, Noyes of Warren, Smith of Lackawanna, Bechtel of Schuylkill and Magee of Allegheny Nominated for Judges.

WILLIAMSPORT, Pa., Sept. 12.—The Democratic state convention adjourned last night after making these nominations: For state treasurer, ex Congressman Benjamin F. Myers of Harrisburg by acclamation, for judges of the superior court, Harmon Yerkes of Bucks county, J. S. Moorehead of Westmoreland, C. H. Noyes of Warren, P. P. Smith of Lackawanna, Oliver P. Bechtel of Schuylkill and Christopher Magee of Allegheny.

The convention was held in the Lycoming Opera House, and the peculiar interest attached to the proceedings in consequence of the vigorous contest for places on the judicial ticket attracted a large crowd. There was nearly a score of candidates for the superior bench and each one had a host of friends working in his interest.

The fight was waged between the country delegations and those from Philadelphia and Pittsburg. The Philadelphia boom collapsed early in the day, but Mr. Magee was victorious, after an exciting contest, defeating Calvin M. Bower, of Centre county, by a vote of 170 to 142.

Apart from the judicial contest, the features of the convention were the adoption of a platform vigorously indorsing President Cleveland and the principles of the Democratic party, and arraigning the present state administration, and a personal attack by John J. Mahony, one of the Philadelphia delegates, upon William M. Singerly, who was the Democratic candidate for governor at the last election.

Mr. Mahony brought about his ears the hisses and angry shouts of the delegates and spectators by declaring he "would rather take his Democracy from Mr. Sellers than from the worst beaten Democrat in Pennsylvania, Mr. Singerly." Mr. Singerly sat in front of Mr. Mahony, and he laughed at the attack, but the crowd received it in a different light and began hissing and shouting, "Sit down!" "Put him out!" etc.

In the midst of the uproar one delegate called for three cheers for Singerly. Immediately, nearly every man in the hall sprang to his feet and cheered repeatedly, the enthusiasm lasting two or three minutes. At its conclusion Mr. Singerly arose and bowed his thanks.

When Mr. Mahony attempted to resume the crowd continued to hiss and jeer, and it was not until Mr. Singerly asked that Mahony be allowed to finish that a semblance of order was secured. When Mr. Mahony could make his voice heard above the din he continued his personal references to Mr. Singerly, and the jeering again began, in the midst of which Mahony, very much excited, sat down.

Mrs. Fleming Indicted.

NEW YORK, Sept. 12.—The grand jury yesterday found an indictment for murder in the first degree against Mary Alice Almont Fleming, the daughter of Mrs. Evelina Matilda Bliss, who was found poisoned from antimony and arsenious acid at No. 336 St. Nicholas avenue, on Aug. 30.

Holmes Indicted in Indiana.

INDIANAPOLIS, Sept. 12.—The Marion county grand jury yesterday afternoon returned an indictment against H. H. Holmes for murder of Howard Pitezel at Irvington.

GREAT NORTHERN WRECK.

Five Trainmen Killed in a Minnesota Accident.

BARNESVILLE, Minn., Sept. 12.—A head on collision between train No. 2, east bound, and train No. 3, west bound, on the Great Northwestern railroad, is reported from Ashby. There was a misunderstanding of orders, and the trains met about three-quarters of a mile west of the station. No. 2 was moving at a good rate of speed, but No. 3 was not under full headway. The force of the collision, however, was sufficient to wreck both engines and telescope the baggage and express cars on the west bound train.

The dead are: J. K. Emerson, St. Paul, engineer of train No. 2; James S. Thibodo, St. Paul, fireman of train No. 2; W. H. Kershaw, St. Paul, express messenger of train No. 2; E. Johnson, St. Paul, mail clerk of train No. 2; Ira S. Haines, St. Paul, engineer of train No. 3.

The following were badly injured: Fred Burgoyne, St. Paul, brakeman, arm broken and leg scalded; S. D. Bestner, Minneapolis, express messenger, eye injured and leg broken. George Williams, St. Paul, mail clerk, seriously injured internally.

Two More Victims.

EVANSVILLE, Wis., Sept. 12.—A bad wreck occurred on the Chicago and Northwestern railroad near this place, causing the death of two men and the demolition of several freight cars. The killed are: F. P. Hollingshead, of New Lisbon, and E. J. Sullivan, of New Lisbon. The accident was caused by a draw bar pulling out of one of the centre cars, which dropped down and caught in the ties of the railroad bridge, throwing the cars into the water.

THE CUBAN WAR.

More Engagements in Which the Insurgents Are Worsted.

HAVANA, Sept. 12.—Battalions of the Soria and Galicia regiments left for the province of Santa Clara to reinforce the command of General Arderius. The soldiers were given an enthusiastic reception by the populace of Havana. Official dispatches report the burning of the small village of Bayecito, near Manzanillo, by an insurgent band.

The government is in receipt of a report that in a skirmish between a company of loyalists under the mayor of Ambal, a town near Melilla, and a band of insurgents, two of the latter were killed.

The insurgent forces under General Serafin Sanchez are reported to have twice attacked a small fort at the village of Fomento, near Trinidad, in the province of Santa Clara. The attacking body was on each occasion obliged to retire after suffering considerable loss.

Official dispatches state that insurgents under command of Carrillo attacked the town of Chaico, on the river Hondo, province of Santa Clara. After a brisk fight the insurgents were forced to retreat. As they took their dead and wounded with them the loss sustained by the insurgents cannot be stated.

Near the River Juan, and not far from the city of Cienfuegos, a company of marine infantry had a sharp skirmish with a band of insurgents, of whom four were killed and one captured.

A railway train carrying troops to the interior was fired upon by the insurgents near Dajas Bagua. According to the official report the troops repelled the attacking party who, in their flight, left two dead and three wounded.

Found a Revolver by His Side.

PELHAM MANOR, N. Y., Sept. 12.—The dead body of a man, apparently about 35 years old, and who was identified as James Ross, who recently arrived at Mount Vernon from Chicago, was found on Allen place with a bullet hole in his head and a discharged revolver lying beside him. It is supposed to be a case of suicide.

SAD DOMESTIC FATALITY.

A Mother Fatally Burned While Trying to Save Her Daughter.

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 12.—Miss Helena Riggs, aged 19 years, was so badly burned by her clothes catching fire at her home, 730 North Fortieth street, last evening, that the doctors say she will die. In attempting to extinguish the flames her mother, Mrs. Emma Riggs, sustained injuries from which she died shortly afterwards.

Miss Riggs was ironing handkerchiefs in a third story room, and used a gas stove standing on the floor to heat the irons. The light summer dress was ignited by one of the jets of flame, but the girl continued her work for several minutes before she discovered that she was ablaze. She ran down stairs screaming with terror, and her mother caught her in her arms. Instantly the elder woman's clothing burst into flames. Their heartrending screams caught the ears of a passenger on a passing street car, and he with two companions ran into the house, and with difficulty smothered the flames.

Mrs. Riggs was burned about the lower part of her body, but death was mainly the result of her having inhaled the flames from her daughter's clothing. The latter was burned almost from head to foot. The victims were the wife and daughter of Robert Riggs, the prominent clockmaker and jeweler.

Three Persons Murdered.

SAN DIEGO, Cal., Sept. 12.—News of three murders near Las Flores, an isolated hamlet fifty miles up the coast from this city, has been received here. A family from Fallbrook were in camp at what is known as the Mussel Beds, on the beach near Las Flores. The family consisted of J. D. Bordon, his daughter and son-in-law named Stiles and their child. The constable at Oceanside received a message from Stiles to the effect that his wife, child and father-in-law had been murdered. It is surmised to be the work of Indians.

Killed by a Live Wire.

LANCASTER, Pa., Sept. 12.—William W. Fitzgerald, a prominent painter of this city, while painting the Railroad House here, grasped an electric wire to remove it temporarily. The wire was a large one, charged with 2,000 volts, and Fitzgerald was instantly killed, his body being roasted before it could be released. William Kirkessner, partner of Fitzgerald, in trying to rescue the latter, was terribly shocked, and narrowly escaped with his life. Several other parties were also badly shocked. Fitzgerald was 30 years old and leaves a family.

A City Assessor Charged with Perjury.

READING, Pa., Sept. 12.—City Assessor Frantz was required by Alderman Stout to enter bail for his appearance at court to answer the charge of perjury. The prosecution is the outcome of a suit instituted by William Call, a contractor, who alleged that he became Frantz's bondsman for the erection of a school building in consideration of sharing in the profits, which agreement Frantz subsequently denied under oath before a board of arbitration.

Canadian Arson Cases.

MONTREAL, Sept. 12.—Fifteen more warrants have been issued for the arrest of prominent merchants on the charge of incendiarism, and there is much excitement in business circles over the affair. Some of the prisoners are alleged to have been concerned in the incendiarism in tenement houses in New York two years ago. Mr. Quinn estimates the total amount of insurance paid out in the fires at over a million dollars.

Eight Victims of Trichinosis.

LAPORTE, Ind., Sept. 12.—The family of Charles F. Krueger—father, mother and six children, ranging in age from 6 to 23 years—were poisoned about a week ago by eating diseased pork, and despite the best medical skill one followed the other to the grave, the last surviving child, Helen, aged 6 years, dying yesterday. The physicians pronounced their disease trichinosis. Their bodies were literally alive with parasites.

Sir Visto Wins the St. Leger Stakes.

LONDON, Sept. 12.—At the Doncaster September meeting yesterday the St. Leger stakes of twenty-five sovereigns each, for 3-year-olds (292 subscriptions), old St. Leger course, about one mile, six furlongs and 132 yards, was won by Lord Rosebery's bay colt Sir Visto. Mr. W. M. G. Singer's Telescope was second and Mr. L. Brassey's Butterfly third.

An American Consul Dies of Fever.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 12.—The state department received a cablegram last night from Vice Consul Dawson at San Salvador as follows: "Consul Munchmeyer died today of yellow fever. His wife is attacked with the same disease." Consul Munchmeyer was appointed February last from West Virginia. His predecessor, Consul Pollock, also died of fever.

The Filibuster Cases Go Over.

WILMINGTON, Del., Sept. 12.—The session of the United States court yesterday was very brief. After a petty case had been disposed of the court was adjourned until Wednesday, Sept. 18. The Cuban suspects will have to wait another week while awaiting the action of the grand jury, which will continue at work.

The Samoan Troubles.

AUCKLAND, New Zealand, Sept. 12.—Advices from Samoa, dated Sept. 5, state that ex-King Tamasese recently came to Apia and submitted overtures for permanent peace to be considered by the British and German consuls and King Malietoa. The conditions of the proposals have not been disclosed.

Buried by an Avalanche.

BERNE, Sept. 12.—An avalanche from the Aletsch glacier has fallen upon the hamlets of Spitalmatte. About two square miles of land has been covered. It is feared that ten persons and 300 head of cattle have perished.

Injured by a Boiler Explosion.

SHAMOKIN, Pa., Sept. 12.—One of a nest of twenty-four boilers at the Logan colliery exploded yesterday, and Harry Hunter and John Cyolick were badly injured. The damage amounts to $5,000.

IT IS DEFENDER'S RACE.

The Committee Decides in Favor of the Protest.

VALKYRIE VIOLATED THE RULES.

Evidence Taken by the Committee as to How the Accident of Tuesday Happened, and It Was Shown That the English Yacht Had Disregarded Rules.

NEW YORK, Sept. 12.—The regatta committee of the New York Yacht club has sustained the protest entered by Defender in Tuesday's race. The committee gives the race to Defender. Evidence was taken yesterday by the committee, and it was clearly shown that the English yacht had violated the rules of racing.

The yacht races for America's cup of 1895 will remain in history as the most exciting that ever took place up to date. Not that the capabilities of the boats have been so evenly matched as in some other races, such as the second race of the Puritan and Genesta series and the third between Vigilant and Valkyrie II, but in the enthusiasm which has prevailed among the people from the very time that the match was made.

It is true that there has not been very much betting on the event, but that is easily accounted for. At first there was too much doubt on both sides, and after one trial the friends of the yacht that was beaten demanded too great odds.

At no time since Valkyrie arrived in this country has the excitement approached the degree to which it rose yesterday, excepting the times when the winner has crossed the finish line or rounded a mark, or something like that, when she displayed her superiority actually in a race. The unfortunate collision of Tuesday and its attendant incidents have kept the public in a ferver, so to speak, that has not been equalled.

Everybody was anxious to know what the regatta committee of the New York club would do about Defender's protest, and having learned that the decision was in Defender's favor they were further stirred up by a report that Lord Dunraven, considering that he had been unjustly treated, determined to withdraw his boat and go home without another race.

That the English party holds the sincere opinion that they have been badly treated there can be no doubt. If any testimony on this point were needed it could have been found last night over in the Erie basin, where the two yachts were being measured for the third time under the electric lights—something new in that line—when the feeling between the respective crews of the ships manifested itself in various ways.

Lord Dunraven's friends and advisers on the City of Bridgeport, the Valkyrie's tender, were all quiet in manner and reserved in words. They seemed to desire to let their American callers know that they were deeply hurt. For a long time Commodore Arthur Clennis, who has gained the reputation since he has been on this side of being a genial and exceptionally merry fellow, refused to give the newspaper men the slightest hope that there might be a race today. He did warm up a trifle, however, about 5 o'clock, and admitted that Valkyrie would start today certainly.

Excitement among yachtsmen was at fever heat all day. Everybody has an opinion to express. Of course, most persons upheld the committee from patriotic motives if nothing else. There were a good many, however, who championed Valkyrie and her cause.

While thinking the whole matter over, old timers recalled the action of Sir Richard Sutton, the owner of Genesta who raced against Puritan in 1885. It was remembered that Puritan accidentally, but certainly, fouled the Genesta at the start on the first day of the match. When the committee sent word to Sir Richard that Puritan had been disqualified and that he could sail over the course alone and win the race, he replied that he did not want to win that way; he wanted a race and not a walkover. He showed himself to be a sportsman.

Lord Dunraven has shown in this case that he is not the quitter that some persons have tried to make him out, by saying last night at the Waldorf hotel that he would certainly be on hand to race today.

Defender and Valkyrie were both dry docked yesterday in the Erie basin for another scrub, and were floated again before dark. The Defender also placed one of her spare topmasts in position to take the place of the one that was sprung Tuesday. She will be ready for racing today.

It might be mentioned incidentally that one of the things done to lighten the Valkyrie yesterday was to remove the eighteen pigs of lead that were taken aboard of her on the day before the first race. This lead weighed in the neighborhood of a ton.

Lord Dunraven Speaks.

NEW YORK, Sept. 12.—In an interview last night Lord Dunraven expressed himself regarding the action of the regatta committee of the New York Yacht club in the matter of the protest made by the Defender in Tuesday's race as follows: "I shall sail this race tomorrow as a sportsman, because I have no occasion to do otherwise. I believe in the ability and honesty of the regatta committee of the New York Yacht club. I believe that no effort has been made to influence their decision. While it is very certain that the America's cup is lost by reason of the Valkyrie's racing showing, it is not so certain that at some time the cup may not be carried across the Atlantic."

Conferring Tokens of Esteem.

STETTIN, Sept. 12.—Emperor William has conferred the Grand Cross of the Red Eagle upon Count Mariesh Szogieny, the Austrian ambassador to Germany, while Emperor Francis Joseph has conferred the Grand Cross of Leopold on Count Philip Zu Eulenberg, the German ambassador to Austria, the Grand Cross of St. Stephen upon General Bronsart Von Schellendorf, German minister of war, and has presented a snuff box inlaid with diamonds to Dr. Von Lusanus.

THE GRAND ARMY PARADE.

Many of the Marching Veterans Prostrated by the Heat.

LOUISVILLE, Sept. 12.—Among the distinguished party in the parade yesterday were ex-Governor Campbell of Ohio, ex-Postmaster Colonel James Z. Sexton of Chicago, Colonel L. Krughoff, chief of staff of the state of Illinois; General James Martin, P. D. C., of St. Louis; General H. S. Clare, D. P. C., of Mattoon; Major E. A. Blodgett, Chicago; Major H. H. McDowell of Pontiac and Colonel L. E. McPherson, all of Illinois; General W. Ripley, General Nutt Sibley, General H. Dowling, Toledo; General Warner, Cincinnati; General O'Neal, Lebanon, all of Ohio, and Governor Nelson of Minnesota.

The horse on which Captain C. E. Nordstrom of the Tenth United States cavalry, was mounted slipped and fell, pinning Captain Nordstrom's left leg under him. The ambulance corps was called, and Captain Nordstrom was taken to his home. Upon examination it was found that his leg was broken. Lieutenant Colonel Belknap, in trying to mount his horse, was kicked by the animal, which suddenly turned upon him. He was knocked to the ground, but his injuries are slight.

One of the most serious cases of prostration at the hospital is that of William Janecke, commander of the department of Missouri. William Turner, of the soldiers home at Dayton, was also seriously prostrated. J. H. Perchell, vice adjutant of the department of Missouri, fell from exhaustion. William R. Gill, vice commander of the department of the Potomac, fell from exhaustion; also, Henry Bowan, of the Philadelphia Old Guard; Colonel Gerthart, of Pittsburg; A. J. Dixon, Dayton, and E. S. Herbert, Springfield, Mass.

John Thomas, member of a Michigan post, fell and cut a deep gash in his head. James H. Doyle, of Lawrenceburg, Ky., post, was assaulted by thieves. His right shoulder was broken.

Many who were viewing the parade fell from heat prostration and the hospitals are well filled.

The parade was over four hours in passing a given point, and the boys were marching over five hours. Barring the awful explosion of the caisson of the cannon that was to fire the salute, the parade was a great success. It is estimated that over 30,000 men were in line and fully 300,000 people witnessed the demonstration.

At a rousing campfire in Music Hall last night Hon. Henry Watterson made the welcome address in behalf of the citizen's committee. The building fairly shook with the cheers that were given for him. Colonel R. T. Jacobs made a short speech of welcome in behalf of the Louisville comrades, and Commander-in-Chief T. G. Lawler, responded. Before General Lawler came upon the platform he was addressed by Mayor Tyler, who in a short informal speech presented him with the keys to the city.

Speedy Justice in Philadelphia.

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 12.—One of the most notable instances of speedy justice seen in this city for a long time was in the case of Policeman Charles B. Cullen, of the Fifth district, charged with highway robbery. Within thirty six hours of the time of his arrest he was on his way to the Eastern penitentiary to serve a sentence of three years' imprisonment. The victim of his crime was George S. Smyth, of Brooklyn. At the time of the robbery Cullen was in full uniform and Smyth was helplessly intoxicated. While in the company of his victim the policeman relieved him of a diamond ring and a diamond stud valued at more than $100. A week later Smyth committed suicide.

Officers of the Mystic Chain.

WILKESBARRE, Pa., Sept. 12.—At yesterday's session of the state convention of the Knights of the Mystic Chain the following officers were elected: Select commander, A. R. Wambold of Philadelphia; select recording and corresponding secretary, John J. Davis of Pittsburg; select treasurer, J. G. Lezer of McKeesport; supreme representatives, D. K. Rettew of Columbia, J. B. Black of Philadelphia, Dr. J. W. Hamer of Johnston, Charles Ashcom of Johnstown, S. D. Hunter of Phoenixville, George P. Chandler of Harrisburg and H. E. Wainwright of Pittsburg.

Thrilling Trestle Accident.

ATLANTA, Sept. 12.—As William Ross, his wife and three children reached the middle of Nickajack trestle, on the Southern railroad, a freight train swept around the curve and on the trestle. Mrs. Ross and two children jumped. Ross tossed a young child into a clump of bushes fifteen feet below, and started to jump himself, but was too late. The engine struck and killed him. He fell at his wife's feet. She and the children were not seriously hurt.

Bustamente May Escape Execution.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 12.—A diplomatic representative of one of the Central American republics says that the republic of Salvador will probably not execute Florencio Bustamente, the lieutenant of Ezeta, who was surrendered by the Nicaraguan government, after being taken from an American steamer. He has no no doubt Bustamente will be imprisoned for crimes with which he is charged.

American Tourist Acquitted of Murder.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 12.—The United States consul at Matanzas, under date of Aug. 31, reports to the department of state that Charles Henry May, an American traveling in Cuba was tried on Aug. 30 for killing a negro on Nov. 28, 1894, and acquitted. It was shown at the trial that the killing was in self defense.

Anarchists to Meet.

LONDON, Sept. 12.—The Berlin correspondent of the Standard says that rumors are current that the anarchists of all countries will hold a meeting in London in October, and will come to an agreement regarding the common agitation to form a fund to support the needs of the members.

Fatally Assaulted by Strikers.

AURORA, Ills., Sept. 12.—Patrick Barrett, one of the striking employes of the Aurora Cotton mills, was found dying under the new York street bridge. His back was broken. He claims to have been assaulted during the night by unknown parties, and thrown off the bridge.

MEN BLOWN TO PIECES.

Louisville Soldiers Killed by the Explosion of a Caisson.

SIX DEAD AND SEVERAL INJURED

The Accident Occurred in the Residence Portion of the City, and the Victims Were Members of a Local Artillery Company.

LOUISVILLE, Sept. 12.—A horrible accident, in the death of six and the wounding of several members of the Louisville Legion, occurred by the explosion of a caisson. The accident took place on Broadway between Third and Fourth streets, where the First Kentucky artillery were stationed for the purpose of firing a salute.

Two of the bodies were blown over the house tops, and were horribly mangled. The wounded have been removed to the hospitals. Two horses attached to the cannon were so horribly mangled that they will be put to death. All the killed were members of the First Kentucky artillery, of Louisville, which has always been considered the finest in the state.

Those killed are: Corporal Al Robinson, Privates Charles Oestrich, Charles Wood, Howard Irwin, —— McBride, —— Hutchins, and the driver, William Adams, colored.

The place where the accident occurred is one of the finest resident districts in the city. Fortunately, few people were on the street or the list of killed and injured would have undoubtedly been greatly increased. Every window in the block was blown out.

The body of the colored driver, mangled almost beyond recognition, fell on the front porch of a residence, fully 300 feet from the place where the explosion occurred. Just outside the fence and on the sidewalk was the body of Private Woods. Bits of flesh and pieces of bloody uniform were scattered all along the street, clinging to the tree tops and in the shattered windows. A leg and half a coat were found on Third street, one block south of where the explosion took place. They must have been blown clear over a three story and basement house. Several mangled legs and arms were found on the tops of adjacent houses.

It is believed that the body of Private Hutchins was blown to pieces, as it has not yet been found. The body of Howard Irwin was so badly mangled that it was almost impossible to gather it up without a shovel. It was found at the intersection of Broadway and Fourth streets, nearly a block away.

It is doubtful if anything ever occurred in this region that has caused such widespread sorrow. The regiment to which the young men belonged is made up of the pick and flower of Louisville. Many of them are society leaders and of wealthy families. Captain David Castleman, who was in charge, was riding at the side of the detail. He escaped injury.

The battery was on its way to Phœnix hill for the purpose of firing a salute of forty-four guns. There were sixty-six pounds of powder in the caisson.

Catholic T. A. B. Union.

WILKESBARRE, Pa., Sept. 12.—The state convention of the Catholic Total Abstinence Benevolent Union of Pennsylvania met at Pittston yesterday. There were about seventy-five delegates present. President M. J. Berry called the convention to order and delivered an address of welcome, to which T. J. McCarthy, of Williamsport, responded. The report of the president was read and several committees were appointed. The greater part of the afternoon session was occupied by the reading of the reports of the secretary and treasurer.

The Nicaragua Indemnity.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 12.—In dispatches to the department of state, dated Aug. 23 and 24, Consul O'Hara, of San Juan del Norte, Nicaragua, announces the distribution of the indemnity of $15,000 paid by the government of Nicaragua in response to the British demand for damages to British subjects because of the Bluefields affair. The amounts received by individuals range from $700 to $1,500. The British vice consul, Edwin Hatch, received the latter amount.

Cuban Rebels Winning Sympathy.

LONDON, Sept. 12.—The Havana correspondent of The Times says: "I have just returned from the province of Matanzas, where I found sympathy with the rebels in all parts traversed. The time is arriving when Spain must offer absolute autonomy if it wishes to keep Cuba. Maximo Gomez is advancing toward Santa Clara with the object of allowing Rabi to advance into Matanzas. General Campos has wired to Madrid not to send further reinforcements."

Threatened Lynching in Missouri.

CENTRALIA, Mo., Sept. 12.—The trial of the negro Charles Marion for attempted rape was set for yesterday, but fearing mob violence the officers would not assume the risk. Quite a number of Boone and Calloway farmers were here, many of them armed, and it is reported that a large body of men are marching to Columbia with the determination to take Marion out of jail and hang him.

Windward Polar Expedition.

LONDON, Sept. 12.—A dispatch from Christiania says that the yacht Windward, of the Jackson-Harmsworth expedition, has arrived at the Island of Vardoe, in the Arctic ocean, having broken out of the ice belt between Franz Josef Land and Barent's sea. It is learned that the crew of the Windward suffered severely from [illegible] during the winter, and that three of them died.

Murdered by a Georgia Clergyman.

ALBANY, Ga., Sept. 12.—The Rev. Daniel Griffin, a well known colored preacher, shot and killed Rev. Simon Law, Baptist pastor, at Graves Mill, this county, yesterday afternoon. Griffin was arrested [illegible] but Dougherty county jail [illegible] Griffin deliberately shot him dead.

When Your CAKE Is All Dough

When your cake is heavy, soggy, indigestible, it's a pretty sure sign that you didn't shorten it with COTTOLENE. When this great shortening is rightly used, the result will surely satisfy the most fastidious. Always remember that the quality of COTTOLENE makes a little of it go a long way. It's willful waste to use more than two-thirds as much as you would of lard or butter. Always use COTTOLENE this way, and your cake and pastry will always be light, wholesome, delicious.

Genuine COTTOLENE is sold everywhere in tins, with trade-marks—"Cottolene" and steer's head in cotton-plant wreath—on every tin.

GOOD CITIZENS ARE ANGRY.

ROCHESTER, WITHOUT REGARD TO PARTY, UP IN ARMS.

ALDRIDGE'S MACHINE WAYS

Included Ballot-Box Stealing and Like Practices at the Recent Caucuses—An Uprising of Conscience Republicans Against Degrading Bossism Predicted.

A Rochester special dispatch to the Buffalo Express, a Republican paper, but of the better element, gives this vivid account of how Superintendent-Boss Aldridge won his recent victory in the Rochester canvass, and what decent Republicans propose to do about it:

"Published reports of Superintendent Aldridge's victory at the caucuses one week ago to-day treated the subject very inadequately They led one to suppose that aside from a little disturbance in the 20th ward—where Aldridge men threw the chairman out of a window and stole the ballot box—the primaries were without incident Rochester Republicans who have for years silently endured for the sake of the party the trying tactics of the Aldridge men, declare that these caucuses capped the climax and that the local boss must now look elsewhere for the votes to pull him through One of the best known party leaders here said to-day that the outrages which the Machine committed in order to carry these caucuses were shocking and that those familiar with the facts never have seen the equal. The machine had been ordered to win at all hazards, and that is what it did

DISGRACEFUL FACTS.

"In the 20th ward the friends of ex-Mayor Curran won the preliminary fight against the machine by electing J. J. Hayes as chairman of the caucus. This defeat so angered the Aldridge men that they resolved to carry the ward by hook or crook. The Republican voters showed so decided a preference for Curran ballots that the Machine gang finally took Chairman Hayes and threw him out of the window. Hayes desiring to act as chairman inside rather than from a distance returned to his post, only to be again put out through the window by the Aldridge men One of the Boss's followers named Schwing is under arrest for the part he took in this affair. Schwing is also suspected of having had a part in the theft of the ballot box which followed soon after the regular chairman had been thrown out. At the time the box was stolen 130 votes had been cast. The substitute chairman then received a few ballots in his hands and five out of six proved to be for Curran It is likely the same proportion held true of the ballots in the stolen box thus making easy a guess why the Aldridge men broke up that caucus. If sufficient evidence is found against Schwing he will be held for the grand jury.

DECENT VOTERS SHOVED OUT OF LINE

"Jimmy Laird, who gets four dollars a day from the State through a job Supt. Aldridge gave him, was chairman of the caucus in the fourth ward. Laird is charged with deliberately tearing up Curran ballots and seeing that few but machine tickets got into the box. A close friend of ex-Mayor Curran to-day declared that Curran would have surely carried this ward but for Laird's outrageous conduct. The machine here had formed a long line of adherents. Whenever an Aldridge Republican appeared, he would be shoved into place in the fore part of the line while anti-Aldridge voters were compelled to fall in at the rear and stand in line so long that many were thus kept from the ballot box until the hour for closing the caucus came. Many Curran Republicans left in disgust. One of them who stood this jostling by the Fourth Ward gang until his patience ceased finally dropped out, and joined others who were going away without voting They would not submit to the insult. "Not only were we afraid," said this man, "of losing our jewelry and watches, but of losing our reputations also."

Affidavits are being gathered about the city. These will be presented to the district attorney. If one half that is known can be got into legal form the grand jury will have considerable to do with the final history of Superintendent Aldridge's great victory"

A THIRD TICKET ASSURED.

"It now looks like a triangular fight for the Rochester mayoralty. Dr Curran it is almost certain will be enthusiastically nominated by the Republican municipal league He will run as a reformer on an anti-Boss platform The league is a new organization of representative business men, lawyers and soldiers and has committees in every ward It will form the nucleus of the anti-Aldridge campaign There are about 30 000 voters in Rochester and Dr. Curran's friends are confident that the ex-mayor can get the proportion of them necessary to win"

HARMONIOUS DEMOCRATS.

Better Feeling Becoming General Throughout the State.

The settlement of local differences in the Monroe county Democracy by the State committee seems to be cordially accepted by all hands and likely to result in an era of good feeling and party gains in that neighborhood.

The Democratic general committee of Erie county has adopted the following harmony resolution. "That before we proceed to organize for active work for the campaign of 1895, a sub-committee of five be appointed by the chairman to hear and consider any suggestions or propositions tending to harmonize and unite the party in the county, which may be submitted to them by or on behalf of any Democratic organization or individuals, and to report the same with such recommendations as they may deem wise, at the next meeting of the committee."

The Kings county regular Democracy has authorized its executive committee by resolution "to take such steps as may be necessary to bring about unity of action among the Democratic organizations" of the county. The family quarrel there is generally regarded as being as good as settled, on the basis of conceding the Shepardites one-third the State delegates.

KNOWLEDGE

Brings comfort and improvement and leads to personal enjoyment when rightly used. The many, who live better than others and enjoy life more, with less expenditure, by more promptly adapting the world's best products to the needs of physical being, will attest the value to health of the pure liquid laxative principles embraced in the remedy, Syrup of Figs.

Its excellence is due to its presenting in the form most acceptable and pleasant to the taste, the refreshing and truly beneficial properties of a perfect laxative; effectually cleansing the system, dispelling colds, headaches and fevers and permanently curing constipation. It has given satisfaction to millions and met with the approval of the medical profession, because it acts on the Kidneys, Liver and Bowels without weakening them and it is perfectly free from every objectionable substance.

Syrup of Figs is for sale by all druggists in 50 cent bottles, but it is manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co. only, whose name is printed on every package, also the name, Syrup of Figs, and being well informed, you will not accept any substitute if offered.

WHERE IS JAMES W. CROWELL?

Has Not Been Heard of Since July 22d, When He Left Brooklyn for Middletown to Purchase a Property.

Captain Grier, this morning, received a letter from Mrs. Christine E. Crowell, of 995 Third avenue, Brooklyn, asking him to institute inquiries concerning her husband, James W. Crowell, who left his home July 22d. He had with him between $3,000 and $4,000, and said that he was going to Middletown for the purpose of purchasing a piece of property near this city.

Mr. Crowell is described as a man fifty-eight years of age, gray hair, mustache and goatee, florid complexion, weight 165 pounds. He wore a black cheviot suit, black alpine hat, red flannel undershirt, canton flannel drawers, hand knit black socks, with J. W. C. worked in red silk, laced shoes. There was a tattoo mark on his arm of a girl on a wreath. He carried a valuable gold watch and chain.

Any information concerning him will be gratefully received by Mrs. Crowell.

THE GREAT "WILD WEST."

Some of the Features of the Great and Novel Exhibition.

The horses and horsemen of all nations, not by the dozen or by the score, but by the hundred, will be seen in infinite variety in the Great

Wild West exhibition, which is to be given here, Friday, Sept, 20th. In this exhibition the wonderful West of a few years ago will be revived in all its rugged and romantic splendor, with its plains, prairies and mountain passes; with its log cabin of the frontiersman, the wigwam of the Sioux, the burly bison, the pony express and the lumbering treasury coach of the Overland Route to Deadwood. The Mexican with his lariat, the cowboy with his broncho, and the cavalry troops of the United States Army will all be here in picturesque grouping. With them will come also the rough-riding people from many foreign lands. The Cossack and the Russian steppes, the Ranchero of the Rio Grande, the Bedouin from the Arabian Desert, and the trained horse-soldiery of the strongest European nations, including the French Chasseur, the German Uhlan, and the English Irish Lancers; and at the head of all this great aggregation, Col. William F. Cody, ex-scout, ex-Indian fighter, and ex-legislator, the handsome, long haired and imparisled Buffalo Bill, deservedly the object of more hero worship by all America than any other character in national history.

The Wild West exhibition, while entirely familiar of late years in the great cities of Europe, and later to the visitors to the Columbian World's Fair in 1893, and in 1894 to New Yorkers, will be entirely novel entertainment in this section, and will no doubt attract, as it merits, an enormous attendance, as it will afford an opportunity of seeing a most novel, and at the same time, truthful object lesson, portraying as it does, many of the important incidents of pioneer history.

THE NEW "EIGHT BELLS."

All the Best of the Old Features Retained and Many New Ones Added.

"Eight Bells" will be presented at the Casino, Saturday evening.

There is no villian in Byrne Bros. rejuvenated "Eight Bells," but there is plenty of fun, trick scenery, good music and clever specialties. The piece has been seen here so often that little need be said in praise of its many exeellent features. All the former successes in the way of trick effects are retained and many new things added. It still presents the great revolving ship scene, the trick wagon, the hustling octopus, the weird trunk, doors and chairs, and a dozen other features. Incidentally a number of pleasing specialties are introduced. No one can help but admire the fine acrobatic work of the Brothers Byrne. Mr. John F. Byrne is also a clever comedian, and his McGozzle is a laughable representation of the stage Irishman.

BURLINGHAM.

School Reopened—Squirrel Hunting—No Surplus Water in the Shawangunk Kill—Improvements at the Mill—Many Other Notes.

Correspondence ARGUS and MERCURY.

—School began with Mr. Mattison, of Wurtsboro, as teacher and the usual attendance of pupils.

—There are still a few boarders here.

—The squirrel season being open, several parties from Middletown have been here to try their luck, but without success. Mr. Fred. Barnes, of New York, bagged eight fine squirrels, one morning.

—Bass fishing is still good here in the kill, if the proper bait is used.

—The summer girl having departed the young man is giving the carriage horse a needed rest.

—Those people that make a business of throwing all kinds of rubbish in the kill, including small logs, weeds, etc, should consult the law on the subject.

—We see in the papers that Middletown is again looking to the Shawangunk Kill as a source of water supply. I would say here that there is no water to spare from the kill, as the mills along it never have any more than they can use, except for about twenty days in a year, when there is more than is needed for the mills.

—Our miller is putting in more new machinery for buckwheat, and also for wheat. He says he intends to beat the world, this season, in the manufacture of flour.

—Mr. D. Webster has cut and threshed his buckwheat, and we are informed he had a fine crop.

—The farmers have about finished putting in their winter grain and are cutting corn.

—Now repair and put your plough away under shelter, so that it will be ready for next spring's work. Also get your sledge out and have it fixed up for the winter. Do not wait until the snow flies and the blacksmith is busy.

—Pay your school taxes at one per cent, now. It will be five per cent. in two weeks.

—Joshua Saunders, from Ellenville, visited friends here on Sunday. Joshua looks well and we should judge that Ellenville air and surrounding agree with him.

—Jack Schultz, our popular hotel man, is about making some repairs at his hotel.

—Is it not about time the road was fixed at the bridge? The commissioners, as yet, have done nothing to protect the road from the floods that are sure to come this fall and next spring. If nothing is done, soon, it will only be a matter of a couple of years before we will have to put in another bridge at an expense of $300 or $400. Oh, well, the taxpayers are rich, they can stand it.

—A church sociable will be held here, Saturday evening, Sept. 14th.

BULLVILLE.

The Presiding Elder's Visit.

Big Counterfeiting Plot.

SEYMOUR, Mo., Sept. 12.—Counterfeiter W. A. Pruitt, together with the moulds belonging to a gang of counterfeiters, was captured in the dug hills of the Ozark mountains. Deputy Marshal Gates has taken him to Springfield to confront his pal, who took one-half of the moulds to the United States marshal there and gave the plot away. The plan was to make the money of standard silver of proper weight. The moulds were made of fire brick. Pruitt says no money had yet been made, only lead in imitation to test the moulds, but the operations were to have been begun soon. Other arrests will follow, as Pruitt has confessed all, and connects several prominent people with the plot.

Customs Brokers in Trouble.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 12.—The collector of customs at New York has made a preliminary report in his investigation of the case of Des Brisay & Allen, customs brokers and attorneys, charged with illegally procuring large amounts of drawback on exported goods. The collector's report does not state in detail what his investigation discloses, but enough has been learned to warrant him in refusing the firm a license for another year.

Fierce Fire Raging in a Western Town.

WICHITA, Sept. 12.—Word is received here that a disastrous fire is raging in Conway Springs, a town of 1,200 inhabitants, in Sumner county. Half of the business center, including the postoffice has been destroyed. The town is practically without fire protection and its buildings are mostly light frame structures. A strong wind is blowing and it is feared the whole town will be swept away.

To Overtop the Eiffel Tower.

CHICAGO, Sept. 12.—The West park board has received a communication from the Tower company, an organization of local capitalists, who aim to construct a tower to surpass the Eiffel tower of Paris. This company proposes to construct a gigantic steel tower in one of the West Side parks. The elevation is placed at 1,100 feet, and the cost is estimated at $900,000.

Murdered by Her Employes.

OSCEOLA, Ark., Sept. 12.—Mrs. Rhea, living on a farm twenty-five miles north of here, was murdered by two negroes, Will Caldwell and an old man, who were working for her, and whose object was robbery. Caldwell was arrested, confessed and was taken from the officers and hanged to a tree. The old man was also caught, and by this time has probably been lynched.

Second Ward—Phoenix Engine House.
Third Ward—Commercial Hotel
Fourth Ward - Holding House

The First, Second and Fourth Wards will choose four delegates each to the Assembly (State), County and Assembly District Convention, and the Third Ward three delegates

Each ward will elect one delegate to the Senatorial Convention

A F LUDINGTON, Chairman
TIMOTHY MONGAN Secretary.

TOWN OF WALLKILL.

The Democratic electors of the town of Wallkill are requested to meet in Bull's Hall, Circleville, on Saturday Sept 14th, 1895, at 2.30 p. m., and select the number of delegates to which said town is entitled, in the Assembly Convention and in the several conventions to be hereafter called this year By order Town Committee

R A. HARRAT,
WM WILKIN,
FRANK MILLS

The call for the Democratic Senatorial Convention in this district, now the Twenty-third, will be found at the head of our columns.

The call for the Assembly district convention, published elsewhere, has been amended so as to provide for the election of a delegate to the judicial convention.

Ex-Speaker Titus Sheard defeated ex-Senator Warner Miller in the Herkimer county primaries, which were held, yesterday. Mr. Sheard will let Mr. Miller go to the State convention, but he will be shorn of influence because he will have no delegates behind him.

The Platt faction has secured at least ninety and probably more of New York city's 135 delegates to the Republican State Convention. Naturally Mr. Platt is jubilant, and gave expression to his satisfaction by exclaiming, 'Vox populi, vox Dei," explaining that he 'said it with the idea that it would please his very good friend, Dr. Parshurst."

The Pond Syndicate deposited $3,000,000 in gold, yesterday, and the withdrawals for export were $1,100,000 Since the present export movement began the syndicate has deposited about $14 000 000 in gold in excess of contract requirements. The cotton crop has begun to move and as soon as shipments are made bills of exchange will come into the market and will check the gold export movement.

The decision of the Regatta Committee sustaining Mr. Iselin's protest and awarding Tuesday's race to the Defender because she was fouled by the Valkyrie just before the start, though undoubtedly correct under yachting rules, is very generally regretted by lovers of fair play and true sport. It seems, however, that the committee having failed in their well-meant effort to induce Lord Dunraven and Mr. Iselin to call Tuesday's contest no race had no alternative but to make the decision that they did. As Mr. Irving Grinnell puts it, the committee could not find that Defender fouled Valkyrie, because the committee and all who saw the accident knew that she did not It was necessary, therefore, to find that the Valkyrie was at fault, and this fact established, the race had to be given to the Defender. Mr. Iselin, having been sustained by the committee, at once wrote to Dunraven offering to sail the race over again, which was both manly and generous.

The New York Central special, which yesterday made the run from New York to Buffalo 436¾ miles in six hours and forty-seven minutes or at the rate of 64 348 miles an hour, easily beat the English record, 540 miles in 512 minutes or at a rate of 63 242 miles an hour. The full significance of yesterday's achievement is not realized, however, until it is remembered that the Central's train consisted of four heavy coaches weighing 328,310 pounds, while the English train consisted only of three standard English railway carriages less than half as long as the American train and weighing much less than half as much. Yesterday's run was made against a strong head wind.

CAUGHT IN THE SHAFTING.

The Superintendent of the Hartley Silk Mill Whirled Around a Pulley and Stripped of His Clothing.

About 11 o'clock, this morning, Mr. John Hartley, Superintendent of the Hartley Silk Mill, mounted a step ladder to oil a pulley, when his clothing was caught in the belting and was wound about the shafting and stripped from his person.

The power for the silk mill is obtained from Lindsay & Co's. factory, next door, and as soon as Mr. Hartley's plight was discovered, an employe ran into Lindsay's and had the steam shut off, when Mr. Hartley dropped to the floor.

Although badly frightened and considerably bruised he was not seriously injured and as soon as he could procure sufficient raiment to cover his person was attending to his duties in the mill.

One of the young ladies employed in the mill, who saw Mr. Hartley whirling about the shaft, fainted, and when she did not recover with the usual treatment in such cases, was carried to the Erie freight office, across the street, where she was restored to consciousness.

SERIOUS ACCIDENT TO MRS. H. H. HUNT

Rendered Entirely Helpless by a Fall at Nyack, Two Weeks Ago—Will Soon be Able to Return Home.

While visiting at Mr. W. H. Maire's, in Nyack, Mrs. H. H. Hunt, of this city, tripped on the sill of a French window, through which she was passing, and fell to the floor, injuring her thigh very seriously, for although no bones were broken, she was perfectly helpless. The accident happened two weeks ago, yesterday, and it was not until yesterday that she was able to stand upon or use the injured member. The accident was a very painful one, and its consequences might have been very serious had it not been for the best medical attendance and the unremitting care of a thoroughly competent trained nurse.

Mr. Hunt, who has been at Nyack most of the time since the accident happened, returned home, last night. It is hoped and believed that Mrs. Hunt will be able to return home the latter part of this week or the first part of next week at the very latest.

WHAT HE CAN DO ABOUT IT.

Advice to a Correspondent Who is Suffocated by Dust.

A correspondent, a Republican, complains that about a week ago the street force covered the roadway in front of his house with earth to the depth of several inches, and that every particle of the stuff has been ground into dust, which is driven into his house in clouds, choking the members of his family, ruining his furniture and making his wife's existence a burden. He wants to know what he can do about it.

The only things that we can suggest to our distressed friend are to seal up the house and suffocate, move out of town or grin and bear it until next spring and then do his share toward putting an end to fool government in this city by voting the Democratic ticket.

Journalistic.

—The Newburgh Telegram says that Col. Dickey has retired from the News Company, Editor Keefe purchasing his interest. Charles Johnston, foreman of the job department, and Fred Wilson, business manager, have severed their connection with the office. It is reported that they will publish a morning paper.

DID NOT INTEND TO SAIL.

A Tardy Explanation from Arthur Glennie.

DEFENDER SAILS ALONE.

America's Cup Will Remain on This Side of the Ocean—No Preparations for starting Were Made on Valkyrie and the Course Was Clear—Dunraven Wanted to Sail at Marblehead or Some Other Place Distant from New York

SANDY HOOK, Sept. 12.—Yachtsmen found bright skies overhead and a piping breeze coming in from the southwest when they took observations, to-day. Old Boreas seemed to have decided against Valkyrie, for this is Defender weather. The decision of the Regatta Committee in regard to Tuesday's race leaves Defender only one more race to win to make America's cup safe for another year.

The controversy over Tuesday's accident and the decision against Dunraven in the protested race led to the belief that if bad blood arose Dunraven would refuse to start in any more races, and take his boat back to England. He proved to be too good a sportsman for this, and aside from a vigorous protest against interference by steamboats, made no objection to the verdict. He informed the committee that he would withdraw his boat at any time during the race when steamboats interfered with Valkyrie's wind or gave her their wash. The Regatta Committee assured Dunraven it would do everything in its power to obtain a clear course, and special orders were given to the captains of patrol vessels.

SANDY HOOK, 9.30 a. m.—The wind is west southwest, sixteen miles an hour; light sea

HIGHLANDS, Sept. 12, 10:00 a. m.—Defender is heading for Sandy Hook lightship and Valkyrie is following some distance astern, in tow. Defender is under sail. Both yachts have nearly all sails set. Both yachts anchored off Bay Ridge all night. The Defender has replaced her broken topmast by one belonging to the Colonia. It looked light and yachting sharps feared it would not prove strong enough in a blow.

The Valkyrie has not been remeasured, and according to the rules the previous measurement stands.

The crowd of excursion steamers is fully as great as on the first day's race.

VALKYRIE WITHDRAWS.

SCOTLAND LIGHTSHIP.—The preparatory gun was fired at 11.09.40, and the second gun at 11:19:25. Defender set her spinnaker and both yachts approached the line. The Valkyrie suddenly stooped south as if she was returning. The Defender broke out her spinnaker on crossing the line, and with every inch of canvas drawing dashed along for the goal. The Valkyrie hoisted a protest flag and headed to the judge's boat. The trouble seems to have been that the Fannie B. Williams got in the way. The Defedder kept on her course.

11:35—Valkyrie has withdrawn, and is returning in tow. The judges' boat is following the Defender over the course.

11:50—Official starting time: Defender, 11:20:24; Valkyrie, 11:21:55.

ALL SILENT ON VALKYRIE.

SEA BRIGHT, N. J., Sept. 12.—A carrier pigeon has brought the news that no one on board the Valkyrie will say why she refused to sail. Dunraven was below and refused to come on deck. The Defender will have a walkover and America's cup will remain on this side.

SANDY HOOK.—Before the starting gun was fired the course was entirely clear and the boats had all the room possible. There were no signs of making ready for the race aboard the Valkyrie. There seemed to be no reason for the Britisher's compliant on the score of a clear course

SEABRIGHT, N. J.—When the Valkyrie was returning she was surrounded by excursion boats, whose passengers fired all sorts of queries at those on board the yacht. "What's the matter with 'the British?" came the chorus. They were told Dunraven wouldn't state. "Oh, the lighthouse was in the way," said one, and the crowd laughed, shouted and cheered for Defender and derided Valkyrie. The action of the Valkyrie caused much unfavorable comment.

NEW YORK, Sept. 12 — Designer Watson said, to-day, he could not say whether Dunraven would accept Iselin's generous offer to re-sail Tuesday's race.

BAY RIDGE, Sept. 12.—Upon the arrival of the Valkyrie here, Commodore Glennie said that after the decision on Defender's protest, Dunraven had requested that the races be contested at Marblehead or some other place distant from New York, and that he received no reply and therefore did not intend to race.

INCIDENTS AND HAPPENINGS IN COSHEN.

An Umpire's Narrow Escape—Odd Fellow's Picnic at Midway—Seriously Ill—Sale of Fancy Articles—The Dramatic Club's Good Work—Out of Water.

From Our Regular Correspondent.

—Charlie Polly's Erie base ball nine went to Pine Island, yesterday, and defeated the Pine Islands by a score of 22 to 11. A feature of the game was Snooks Eckert's umpiring, which nearly cost him his life.

—Mrs. Frank C. Hock is visiting at Milton, Ulster county, N. Y.

—Orange Lodge, I O O. F., will hold a basket picnic at Midway Park, next Tuesday.

—Mr. William T. Russell is confined to his bed by severe illness.

—The Junior Auxiliary of St. James' Church will have a sale of fancy articles in Music Hall, on the evening of Thursday, Sept. 26, for the benefit of St. Andrew's Chapel, of Mt. Pleasant, South Carolina. Many beautiful articles will be offered at reasonable prices.

—The Holiday Dramatic Club has presented the Goshen Library with 125 books, purchased with the proceeds of its recent entertainment. It is understood that the club will give another entertainment in the near future for the benefit of the Goshen Band.

—This village is down to hard pan in the matter of water supply, and every possible waste has been stopped in the hopes of tiding over the emergency.

The Valley Railroad Project

President Haines and Vice-President Lafe Pence, of the Monticello and Port Jervis Railroad Company, are in Ellenville in the interest of a railroad down the valley from Summitville to Kingston. They say that if the people along the line, who will be benefitted by a railroad, will give the right of way the road will be built and that work on it will be begun this fall.

The Dustiest Road in All This Section

The dust on the Mechanictown road, which was worked a few weeks ago, is many inches deep and passengers on the trolley cars, when ever a wagon is met or passed have to ride through clouds of powdered earth. A few weeks more of dry weather and the winds will sweep the highway of all the earth that was placed on it in August.

A Poughkeepsie Fireman's Suicide.

Dennis Burke, assistant foreman of Young American Hose Company, of Poughkeepsie, killed himself, yesterday, by shooting, in a fit of despondency. He had been on a spree for two or three days after abstaining for four years.

Sent to New Jersey.

An old man named Golden, who had been at Orange Farm and who was found to belong in New Jersey, was sent to his former home by Poormaster Wood, this afternoon.

Mr. A. A. Snyder, Supt. Poor Farm, Winnesheik Co., says:—Last winter Mr. Robert Leach used two boxes of DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve and cured a large running sore on his leg. Had been under care of physicians for months without obtaining relief. W. D. Olney.

Successful operations by surgeons are reported and published to the surgeon's credit, and it is also a benefit to the public to know of his skill. In this way Drs. Jones and Potter and their ability to cure rupture have become familiar to the public. Russell House, Thursdays. 5

WHEAT AND CLOVER.

On one side slept the clover,
On one side sprang the wheat,
And I, like a lazy lover,
Knew not which seemed more sweet—
The red cups of the clover
Or the green gowns of the wheat.

The red cups of the clover,
They nodded in the heat,
And as the wind went over
With rumble, flying feet
It tossed the cups of clover
And stirred the gowns of wheat.

O rare red cups of clover!
O dainty gowns of wheat!
You touch a lazy lover
How in his lady meet
The sweetness of the clover,
The promise of the wheat.

YE BOWERIE GHOST.

More than two centuries agone, when old Petrus Stuyvesant and his silver banded wooden leg ruled the destinies of New Amsterdam, there was a well known place of refreshment in that colonial town known by the worthy burghers as the Wursthaus. It stood upon the east side of the Old Post or Bowerie road, not far from the present point of junction with Division street.

The then suburban location of the Wursthaus made it and its jovial host—Hans von Schneist—well known and patronized by the townsmen and their families.

But a change came o'er the smiling features and jocund laugh of the host of the Wursthaus when his only son was proclaimed an outlaw. Some boyish indiscretion of speech had been magnified by the hearers, and coming to the ears of the suspicious old director general had resulted in the decree. Young Hans had received timely warning, however, and was supposed to have reached the Swedish colony in safety.

Several months passed away, and one evening young Jacob Twiller related the following weird adventure to the wondering crowd gathered around the central table in the Wursthaus garden:

"I was eel spearing in the Freshwater pond last evening, and by the time the moon was overhead had filled my creel. I started to walk home. I had but passed the Wursthaus when just ahead of me I spied a tall figure wrapped in a long gray cloak. Thinking that no one except the watch could be abroad at that hour of the night, except with some evil purpose in view, I suited my pace to his, meaning to let him precede me toward the city wall. But scarce had we progressed in this manner for a few hundred yards or so when the figure turned, and holding its arms aloft made menacing gestures as if forbidding me to approach.

"Overburdened with my fishing traps I felt powerless, and so knelt on the ground so as to more easily remove the strap of the creel from off my shoulders. But as I kneeled the ghost—for such it surely was—had vanished from sight, and though I hunted well about I could find no trace except mayhap a smoke, smelling strongly of sulphur, which I breathed in my nostrils as I came near to that part of the ground from which he had vanished."

Nothing could shake the valiant Jacob's circumstantial details of the encounter, and though the town cynic sneered, the group gathered closer together around the central table and made haste home in good season.

Within a week Rodolf Janz, the popular butt and scapegrace, added still more to the mysterious tale of his predecessor. While agreeing with Jacob in the general appearance of the gray cloaked figure, he furnished additional details by which it would seem that a long barbed tail was a feature in the phantom and that it walked amid belching clouds of smoke.

And then came the climax. Adam Roelandsen stated to the captain of the watch that he had encountered the gray cloaked phantom; that it came out from the Wursthaus, but hastily turned and re-entered the door ere he could summon up courage to advance or retreat.

Here was a pretty condition of affairs! The habitues of old Hans Von Schneist's place quaked in their very shoes at the bare supposition that they had been drinking the brewings of one who was seemingly in league with the evil one.

And so it came to pass that the stout old captain of the watch, at the head of his little squad, came to investigate the Wursthaus. For some reason old Hans did not come to the door, and when the captain of the watch entered the big taproom he found mine host tightening the hoops of an enormous butt that stood in the darkest corner. The crowd of sightseers, at first fearful of forked tongues of flame and other diabolical attributes of the evil one, were unaware of entering the house. But gathering courage from the assembled military, and particularly impressed by the gallant bearing of the commandant, they gradually pushed forward, until very soon almost every available place was occupied.

"Good morning, Herr Von Schneist!" spoke the captain.

"Good morning to you, herr captain, and to you, soldiers and fellow citizens!" answered the stumpy old tavern keeper. "What means this array? Am I accused of treason, or are you merely come to test the malt in my brewing."

"It is neither of fair brewing nor of treason you are accused, Herr Von Schneist, nor yet of anything coming within the civil or military law. Some there be who say that you are in league with the evil one. Step forward, Adam Roelandsen, and tell your tale again, so that this worthy man will know our business."

Then came shambling forward the pedagogue, who, with many pauses and apologetic utterances, spoke as follows:

"You have all heard, and some few have seen, the gray cloaked figure that walks the Bowerie road at night time. Some there are who say it hath a tail like unto the evil one, and divers others aver that it is surrounded by clouds of rolling brimstone smoke. I spent last evening with John Verbeht up at his gristmill the other side of Corlears Hook, teaching and explaining to him the new method of multiplication. We had scarce half a score mugs of ale and my head was clear as a bell when I saw a gray cloaked figure hastily enter the door of the Wursthaus."

"You will agree, Herr von Schneist, that it is my bounden duty to search your premises?" quoth the captain.

"Assuredly, herr captain," he replied, "but before you begin I will serve you and your men with some of my new ale." Without giving them time to answer he hustled toward the big butt in the dark corner and straightway dispensed a generous measure of the beverage to them. Not having such high opinions of the power of his satanic majesty as the citizens, they quaffed it down, but pronounced it stale and flat.

Then began a scene of turmoil and confusion, enough to make the vrouw's heart break with anguish. But though the iron bound linen chest was turned upside down and emptied of its contents in an unseemly manner, and though closets were upturned, beds overthrown and the whole house pulled out at corners, she never murmured or complained.

But nothing was found, and though the taproom was lightly passed over there was no place in it that a man could hide—except possibly the big butt in the dark corner. That, however, was full of ale—for had they not drank some of it?

And so the watch marched away empty handed, and left to the host and his vrouw the task of putting things to rights.

The gray cloaked demon was seen several times thereafter, but no concerted attempt was made to follow it up. About two months from the time of the fruitless search the few faithful adherents of the Wursthaus noted that both Hans and his wife wore very grave faces. In a few days they announced that a young traveler from Boston was dangerously ill in the darkened bedroom up stairs, and the Dutch physician—who had but just arrived from Holland—was sent for. He came again and again, and the faces of the worthy couple showed a deep sympathy for the youthful guest. Finally the doctor came in the middle of the night and staid till morning, but the soul of his patient fled before the dawn.

Heavy grief o'erhung the Schneist household, and the Wursthaus was closed till after the funeral. Even then old Hans showed a settled grief in his altered demeanor.

Observant neighbors noted that the big butt in the corner was never used after the soldiers drank from it, and when a few months had sped, and comparisons came to be made, it was found that the gray cloaked phantom had never been seen since the young stranger was taken sick. It was also commented upon that no one came from Boston to inquire about him. But there was a many who believed till their dying day that it was a genuine ghost that had been seen by Jacob Twiller et al., gliding along the old Bowerie road.—Pierce W. Hart in New York Advertiser.

NEVER TOO LATE TO MEND

—the bad habits and early vices of young men and their disastrous consequences. Young men and old men, those who suffer from nervous debility and exhaustion, the wasting away of the vital strength and power from hidden drains or intemperate habits can readily find relief for body and mind by writing the World's Dispensary Medical Association, of Buffalo, N. Y. They employ a full staff of physicians and Specialists, who treat at a distance by correspondence or at the Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute of Buffalo, all this class of diseases. Those who suffer from low spirits, irritable temper, a "broken-down" nervous system, and such distressing symptoms as backache, dizziness, shooting pains in head or chest and indigestion, sexual excesses or abuses, all the result of exhausting diseases or drains upon the system,—will find a permanent cure after taking the special prescriptions sent them from the Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute. This association of medical men have prepared a book of 1000 pages, profusely illustrated, written in plain language, treating of the nature, symptoms and curability, by home-treatment, of such diseases. The World's Dispensary Medical Association, Proprietors of the Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute, Buffalo, N. Y., will on receipt of twenty-one (21) cents in stamps for postage and wrapping only, mail, this useful book. It should be read by every young man, parent and guardian in the land.

The Key to the Situation

—if you suffer from Sick or Bilious Headache, Constipation, Indigestion, Bilious Attacks, or any derangement of the stomach, liver and bowels—is Dr Pierce's Pleasant Pellets. Mildly and gently, but thoroughly and effectively, they cleanse, renovate and regulate the entire system. One little "Pellet" for a gentle laxative—three for a cathartic. They're purely vegetable and perfectly harmless: these tiny, sugar-coated granules of Dr. Pierce.

HEART DISEASE, like many other ailments when they have taken hold of the system, never gets better of its own accord, but Constantly grows worse. There are thousands who know they have a defective heart, but will not admit the fact. They don't want their friends to worry, and Don't know what to take for it, as they have been told time and again that heart disease was incurable. Such was the case of Mr. Silas Farley of Dyesville, Ohio who writes June 19, 1894, as follows:

"I had heart disease for 23 years, my heart hurting me almost continually. The first 15 years I doctored all the time, trying several physicians and remedies, until my last doctor told me it was only a question of time as I could not be cured. I gradually grew worse, very weak, and completely discouraged, until I lived, propped half up in bed, because I couldn't lie down nor sit up. Thinking my time had come I told my family what I wanted done when I was gone. But on the first day of March on the recommendation of Mrs. Fannie Jones of Anderson, Ind., I commenced taking Dr. Miles' New Cure for the Heart and wonderful to tell, in ten days I was working at light work and on March 19 commenced framing a barn, which is heavy work, and I have'nt lost a day since. I am 56 years old, 6 ft. 4½ inches and weigh 230lbs. I believe I am fully cured, and I am now only anxious that everyone shall know of your wonderful remedies."

STATE OF NEW YORK, OFFICE OF THE SECRETARY OF STATE, Albany, August 1, 1895—Pursuant to the provisions of section one of article fourteen of the Constitution of the State of New York, and section seven of Chapter six hundred and eighty of the Laws of eighteen hundred and ninety-two, as amended by Chapter eight hundred and ten of the Laws of eighteen hundred and ninety-five, notice is hereby given that the following proposed amendment to article seven of the Constitution of the State of New York is referred to the Legislature to be chosen at the next general election of Senators in this State, to be held on the fifth day of November, eighteen hundred and ninety-five.

AMENDMENT NUMBER THREE.

CONCURRENT RESOLUTION

Proposing an Amendment to Section Seven of Article Seven of the Constitution, relating to the Forest Preserve.

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. Resolved (if the assembly concur), That section seven of article seven of the constitution be amended, so as to read as follows:

Sec. 7. The lands of the State, now owned or hereafter acquired, constituting the forest preserve as now fixed by law, shall be forever kept as wild forest lands. Except as authorized by this section, they shall not be leased, sold or exchanged, to be taken by any corporation, public or private, nor shall the timber thereon be sold, removed or destroyed. The legislature may authorize the leasing for such term as it may by law fix, of a parcel of not more than five acres of land in the forest preserve to any one person for camp and cottage purposes. The legislature may also authorize the exchange of lands owned by the State situate outside the forest preserve for lands not owned by the State situate within the forest preserve. The legislature may also authorize the sale of lands belonging to the State situate outside the forest preserve, but the money so obtained shall not be used except for the purchase of land situate within the forest preserve, and which, when so purchased, shall become part of the forest preserve.

Sec. 2. Resolved (if the assembly concur), That the foregoing amendment be referred to the legislature to be chosen at the next general election of senators, and that in conformity to section one, article fourteen of the constitution, to be published for three months previous to the time of such election.

State of New York, In Senate, April 24, 1895. The foregoing resolution was duly passed, a majority of all the members elected voting in favor thereof.

By order of the senate.
CHARLES T. SANTON, President.

State of New York, In Assembly. The foregoing resolution was duly passed, a majority of all the members elected to the assembly voting in favor thereof.

By order of the assembly.
HAMILTON FISH, Speaker.

State of New York, Office of the Secretary of State, ss.: I have compared the preceding copy of concurrent resolution, proposing an amendment to article seven, section seven of the Constitution, with the original concurrent resolution on file in this office, and I do hereby certify that the same is a correct transcript therefrom and of the whole thereof.

Given under my hand and the seal of office of the Secretary of State, at the City of Albany, this first day (L. S.) of August, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and ninety-five.

JOHN PALMER,
Secretary of State.

The foregoing Concurrent Resolution is published once a week for three months next preceding the next general election in conformity to the aforesaid provisions, in two public newspapers in each county in this State representing respectively the two political parties polling the highest number of votes at the last general election, and in one additional newspaper in each county for every one hundred thousand people in such county as shown by the last preceding State Enumeration.

JOHN PALMER,
Secretary of State.

STATE OF NEW YORK, OFFICE OF THE SECRETARY OF STATE, Albany, August 1, 1895. Pursuant to the provisions of section one of article fourteen of the Constitution of the State of New York, and section seven of Chapter six hundred and eighty of the Laws of eighteen hundred and ninety-two, as amended by Chapter eight hundred and ten of the Laws of eighteen hundred and ninety-five, notice is hereby given that the following proposed amendment to article three of the Constitution of the State of New York is referred to the Legislature to be chosen at the next general election of Senators in this State, to be held on the fifth day of November, eighteen hundred and ninety-five.

AMENDMENT NUMBER TWO.

CONCURRENT RESOLUTION

Of the Senate and Assembly, proposing Amendment to Article Three, Section Twenty-nine, of the Constitution, relating to Prison Labor.

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Resolved (if the senate concur), That the following amendment to the constitution be agreed to and referred to the legislature to be chosen at the next general election of senators:

Section twenty-nine of article third of the constitution is hereby amended so as to read as follows:

Sec. 29. All prisoners sentenced to the several State prisons, penitentiaries, jails and reformatories in the state shall be kept occupied and employed at labor; and on and after the first day of January, eighteen hundred and ninety-seven, no such prisoner shall be required or allowed to work at any trade, industry or occupation wherein or whereby his labor or time shall be farmed out or contracted to any person, firm, organization or corporation. The legislature shall provide for the employment of such prisoners, as far as practicable, upon public works, or in the manufacture of supplies required for the use of public institutions owned or managed and controlled by the state or any political division thereof.

State of New York, in Assembly, April 24, 1895. This bill was duly passed, a majority of all the members elected to the assembly voting in favor thereof, three-fifths being present.

By order of the assembly.
HAMILTON FISH, Speaker.

State of New York, in Senate, May 14, 1895. This bill was duly passed, a majority of all the senators elected voting in favor thereof, three-fifths being present.

By order of the senate.
CHARLES T. SANTON, President.

State of New York, Office of the Secretary of State, ss.: I have compared the preceding copy of concurrent resolution, proposing an amendment to article three, section twenty-nine of the Constitution, with the original concurrent resolution on file in this office, and I do hereby certify that the same is a correct transcript therefrom and of the whole thereof.

Given under my hand and the seal of office of the Secretary of State, at the City of Albany, this first day (L. S.) of August, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and ninety-five.

JOHN PALMER,
Secretary of State.

The foregoing Concurrent Resolution is published once a week for three months next preceding the next general election in conformity to the aforesaid provisions, in two public newspapers in each county in this State representing respectively the two political parties polling the highest number of votes at the last general election, and in one additional newspaper in each county for every one hundred thousand people in such county as shown by the last preceding State Enumeration.

JOHN PALMER,

STATE OF NEW YORK, OFFICE OF THE SECRETARY OF STATE, Albany, August 1, 1895. Pursuant to the provisions of section seven, chapter six hundred and eighty, Laws of eighteen hundred and ninety-two, as amended by chapter 810, Laws of 1895, notice is hereby given that the following proposition will be submitted to the people of the said State, for the purpose of voting thereon at the next general election in this State, to be held on the fifth day of November, eighteen hundred and ninety-five, at the said general election there is to be submitted to the people for the purpose of voting thereon, the following proposition, embodied in section one, of chapter seventy-nine, of the Laws of eighteen hundred and ninety-five:

"There shall be submitted to the people of this state at the general election to be held in November, eighteen hundred and ninety-five, the proposition, to be voted upon by the electors of this state, to issue bonds by the state to the amount not to exceed nine millions of dollars, which bonds shall be sold by the state, and the proceeds thereof paid into the state treasury and so much thereof as shall be necessary expended for the purpose of enlarging and improving the Erie canal, the Champlain canal and the Oswego canal, and the county clerks in the different counties in this state, and all other officers who are now or may hereafter be charged by law with furnishing ballots to the electors at the said general election, are hereby authorized and directed to cause to be furnished a sufficient quantity of ballots both for and against the proposition to authorize the issuing of the said bonds for, and the enlargement and improving of the Erie canal, the Champlain canal and the Oswego canal; the said ballots shall be printed as follows: "For the proposition to issue bonds for the improvement of the Erie canal, the Champlain canal and the Oswego canal," and "Against the proposition to issue bonds for the improvement of the Erie canal, the Champlain canal and the Oswego canal." The comptroller is hereby charged with the duty of selling said bonds to the highest bidder after advertising for a period of twenty consecutive days (Sundays excepted) in at least two daily newspapers in the city of New York, two daily newspapers in the city of Brooklyn, and two daily newspapers printed in the city of Albany, said advertisements to contain a provision to the effect that the comptroller, in his discretion, may reject all bids made in pursuance of said advertisements, and in the event of such rejection the comptroller is authorized to readvertise for bids as many times as may be necessary to effect a satisfactory sale."

State of New York, Office of the Secretary of State, ss.: I have compared the preceding copy of proposition embodied in section one, chapter seventy-nine, of the laws of eighteen hundred and ninety-five, with the original law on file in this office, and I do hereby certify that the same is a correct transcript therefrom, and of the whole thereof. (Published pursuant to chapter six hundred and eighty, laws of eighteen hundred and ninety-two, as amended by chapter eight hundred and ten of the laws of eighteen hundred and ninety-five, in two public newspapers in each county, in said State, representing respectively the two political parties polling the highest number of votes at the last general election, and in one additional newspaper in each county for every one hundred thousand people in such county, as shown by the last preceding State enumeration.)

Given under my hand and seal of office of the Secretary of State, at the city of Albany, this first day of (L. S.) August, in the year of our Lord, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-five.

JOHN PALMER,
Secretary of State.

The following is the form of ballot to be used in voting on said proposition:

A Smart Negro.

Sam Johnsing, having missed a pair of pants, made a complaint at the police headquarters and a few days afterward a pair of unmentionables similar to the missing garment was discovered among the other collaterals deposited in a pawnbroker's establishment.

"Do you think you could identify the pants if you were to see them?" asked the chief of police, on meeting the distressed owner on the street.

"Does yer s'pose I'ze one ob dem ignunt niggers what nebber learned de rudimentaries?" was the indignant response.

"But can you identify the pants if you see them again?"

A pitying smile came over the colored man's face as he replied with scorn: "Oh, I ain't one ob dose crucified darkies what ain't got no edification. I kin identerfy dem an' pass 'em I nebber sees 'em agin."—Texas Siftings.

Mr. Chugwater entered the store with the confident air of a man who knew exactly what he had come to buy and was prepared to pay the cash for it.

"I want a Butterworth pattern No. 99,674," he said, "for a 38 inch waist."

"Are you sure that's the right size?" asked the young woman behind the counter.

"Yes, that's the size my wife told me to get."

"Is it for her?" said the young woman, with some hesitation of manner.

"I don't know that that makes any difference," rejoined Mr. Chugwater, slightly raising his voice, "but I have no objection to stating that it is."

"I beg pardon, but—but would you mind telling me how much she weighs?"

"She weighs about 150 pounds."

"I thought so," said the young woman, reaching promptly for something in one of the pigeonholes behind her. "It's a 38 inch size the lady wants. A 38 inch would be about the right size for a 175 pound person, and we don't keep it in stock. Two ny-five cents, please."

Mr. Chugwater paid the money, put the pattern in his pocket and walked out of the store with a curious feeling that he had shrunken three or four sizes too small for his clothes and that 16 giggling girls had seen him shrink.—Chicago Tribune.

WILLIAM E. BRAGG'S FORGERIES.

Another of His Worthless Checks Turns Up — Drawn on the Chester Bank and Passed on Mr. Charles J. Everson—Pretended to Be Dr. Gordon's Brother-in-Law and Bought a Barrel of Flour for Him—Police Fail to Find the Forger.

The man who called himself William E. Bragg, and who, as related in yesterday's ARGUS, passed forged checks on John A. Wallace and Charles Higham, began operations as long ago as last Friday, when he worked off a forged check on the Chester National Bank on Mr. Chas. J. Everson, the King street flour and feed dealer.

The fellow called at Mr. Everson's, Friday, represented himself as Rev. Dr. Gordon's brother-in-law and ordered a barrel of flour sent to the Manse, explaining that Dr. Gordon had been buying his flour at Runyon & Co.'s, but finding that he had been overcharged had decided to transfer his patronage to Mr. Everson. While talking he produced a check for $14.85 on the Chester Bank, signed Edward B. Maskerson, drawn to Dr. Gordon's order and apparently endorsed by him. The name "Maskerson" was not very legibly written and Mr. Everson knowing that there is a Mr. Masterson in business in Chester assumed that it was his check and, completely deceived by the plausible and assured manner of Dr. Gordon's alleged brother in-law, accepted the check, handed over $10 in change and in due season sent the barrel of flour to Dr. Gordon's house.

The men sent with the flour had some difficulty in delivering it, for Dr. and Mrs. Gordon insisted that there must be some mistake, that no flour had been ordered, and that a barrel of it would last them a year. One of the men was about to tell who had sent the flour, when the other cut him short by saying that it was to be a surprise, and that nothing was to be said about who sent it. After this no objection was made, and they rolled the flour into the house and went their way.

The check was deposited by Mr. Everson in the Merchants and Manufacturers' Bank, and in due course of business was forwarded to Chester for collection, where it was thrown out as a forgery, yesterday.

The police made diligent search for Bragg in this city, Goshen and other places, yesterday afternoon and evening, but failed to find the fellow. They learned that he went to Goshen about noon, but all trace of him was lost after reaching that village.

Information that the police have obtained leads them to believe that Bragg is an all-around crook. They are satisfied that he "touched" Mr. E. J. Dikeman, of Goshen, for his pocketbook, and after emptying it of its contents, threw it into the flush tank at the Commercial Hotel, where it was found by Mr. Higham. They have also learned that Bragg was a frequent visitor at notorious resorts in this city and its vicinity.

Dr. Gordon is at present ahead a barrel of flour and a ton of coal as a result of the fellow's use of his name. The barrel of flour has not been opened and will be returned to Mr. Everson, and he will pay Mr. Wallace for the ton of coal which was placed in the cellar of the Manse on the afternoon of the day that it was ordered.

Officer Sharpe went to Ellenville, this morning, and though the police are reticent on the subject, it is believed he went in search of Bragg.

Mr. F. H. Soper, representing Randolph, Paige & Co., of New York, eastern agents for Pillsbury flour, who is in town, to-day, says that no one by the name of William E. Bragg was ever employed by the concern as salesman, so that Bragg's claim that he was in town selling Pillsbury's flour was evidently a lie invented for the occasion.

An Insane Motorman.

William Tice, of Walden, who became a motorman on a Brooklyn electric railroad, a year ago, has become violently insane. Overwork was telling on him, and he was given a vacation a few weeks ago, which he spent at Walden. On returning to Brooklyn he found his place filled by another man and was put on as extra. This preyed on his mind and he became violently insane.

A WASTE OF PUBLIC MONEY.

How the Street Fund Is Being Squandered—Carting Earth on the Streets—Dust Now, Mud Later.

If all of the $7,900 appropriated by the Common Council for general street work is to be expended (and we have the the assurance of Mr. Reed that the Council will "manage to spend it"), as it has been thus far in carting earth upon the streets, Middletown's thoroughfares will be in worse condition this winter and next spring than they have ever been before.

Wherever this earth has been spread upon the streets there is now a mass of dust from two to five inches in depth, which will be converted into thin mud when the first heavy rain comes. It is a fact that there never was as much money at the command of the city authorities for street work as there is this year, and the taxpayers never had as little for their money, and it may be added that the streets of Middletown and the approaches to the city were never in worse condition. As we have had occasion to remark several times, "Republicanism is an expensive luxury."

AT THE PUMPING STATION.

Preparing to Use the Water from the Ogden Brook.

Superintendent Van Duzer has a gang of men at work at the pumping station making the preparations necessary in order that water from the Ogden brook may be used. The brook cannot be dammed without flooding the meadows above the dam, and since claims for damages will be made if this is done, a ditch is being dug to turn the water of the brook into the big well, from which the pumps already in place will force it into the mains.

A Very Bold Daylight Burglary.

From our Edenville Correspondent

The house of Fred Weeden was broken open during the absence of the family, a few days ago, and $62 taken. The thief, whoever he may have been, was not satisfied with having obtained the above amount, but proceeded to ransack the whole house. Mr. Weeden says there was a $20 bill in the money taken, and this may lead to the discovery of the thief who dared to enter a house in broad daylight and take what represented a poor man's entire summer savings.

Did You Ever Think

That you cannot be well unless you have pure, rich blood? If you are weak, tired, languid and all run down, it is because your blood is impoverished and lacks vitality. These troubles may be overcome by Hood's Sarsaparilla because Hood's Sarsaparilla makes pure, rich blood. It is, in truth the great blood purifier.

HOOD'S PILLS cure liver ills, constipation, biliousness, jaundice, sick headache, indigestion. 4

Two Lives Saved.

Mrs. Phoebe Thomas, of Junction City, Ill. was told by her doctors she had Consumption and that there was no hope for her, but two bottles of Dr. King's New Discovery completely cured her and she says it saved her life. Mr. Thos. Eggers, 139 Florida St. San Francisco, suffered from a dreadful cold, approaching Consumption, tried without result everything else then bought one bottle of Dr King's New Discovery and in two weeks was cured. He is naturally thankful. It is such results, of which these are samples, that prove the wonderful efficacy of this medicine in Coughs and Colds. Free trial bottles at McMonagle and Rogers' Drug Store.

There is nothing to prevent anyone concocting a mixture and calling it "sarsaparilla," and there is nothing to prevent anyone spending good money testing the stuff; but prudent people, who wish to be sure of their remedy, take only Ayer's Sarsaparilla and so get cured.

HAVEN.

The Canal Fast Going Dry—Boatman in Hard Luck Corn and Buckwheat—Personal and Local Notes.

Correspondence ARGUS and MERCURY.

—Owing to the continued dry weather and lack of water all business on the D. and H. canal is at a standstill with the exception of a few wood boats, which are running from Wurtsboro to the Hudson. The summit level is very low and it is falling every day. There are not more than three feet of water on this level at present and if we don't have rain soon even the wood boats will have to lay up.

—The season of 1895 has been an unsuccessful one for the boatmen. High water in the spring did much damage and now the detention caused by a want of water leaves them in a very poor shape for the coming winter. They have made very few trips up to this date. I think about six loads is the average.

—The farmers in this section are busy cutting corn, which we learn is a very good crop. There has also been quite an acreage of early sown buckwheat harvested and threshed, and the farmers report is about half a crop. The prevailing opinion is that the late sown buckwheat will yield better.

—Mr. Joseph Traynor and sister, Mary, of Paterson, N. J., who have been the guests of their uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. James Moley, of this place, say they have had a most enjoyable vacation, Mary returned to her home, last week, but "Jo" intends spending a week or so more with us.

—Capts. Jansen and Will Tucker are among the lucky boatman as they are home with their boats and are busy gathering hay in the swamp on the lands of Mrs. Van Inwegen.

—The sick about Haven are improving with the exception of Robert Burns, who is in a very precarious condition.

—Mr. Irving Van Inwegen, about eighteen years old and Miss Alice Conklin, aged about sixteen, were married at Wurtsboro, last week.

—Fred Jansen killed a large rattler on the road between here and Wurtsboro, a few days ago.

—The Haven Fur Co. held its first annual coon hunt, last Saturday night. With the usual result, no coon.

—Miss Fannie Hosier is home again after a sojourn of twelve weeks at the boarding house of Godfrey Carpenter's, at High View.

—Miss Carrie Decker has sufficiently recovered from her illness to return to Bloomingburgh and resume her duties again.

Stomach and Bowel Complaints are best relieved by the timely use of DeWitt's Colic & Cholera Cure Insist on having this preparation. Dont take any other. W. D. Olney.

Handsome Decorations—Corn Suffering from the Drought Personal Notes

Correspondence ARGUS and MERCURY.

—The church was very handsomely decorated last Sunday, and the pulpit very tastefully arranged with flowers, the white dahlia predominating. Miss Alice Northrup furnished the flowers and did the work of decoration.

—The Rev. Mr. Morey, of Unionville, occupied the pulpit at the church Sunday evening, and his wife took part in the singing and sang a very beautiful solo.

—Mr. Horace Carpenter is confined to his house by illness.

—Mrs. John Dunn spent a couple of days in Middletown, last week, visiting friends.

—Mr. Bowdoine Courtright spent last week at Middletown and Mount Hope, visiting relatives and friends there.

—Mrs. Mary Connelly and daughter, of Middletown, are visiting her sister, Mrs. Moses Cole, near this place.

—Mr. and Mrs. John Uptegrove, of New York city, are spending a few days with friends in this place.

—Farmers have been praying for rain for some time. It is badly needed. Many corn fields are dying before the corn matured, and some farmers are cutting their corn to save it.
